NEEDED IN EVERY HOME.

NASHVILLE, TENN., Jan. 14.

I am 47 years old, and have been bothered with nervousness, palpitation of the heart and smothering spells, for two or three years. By using several bottles of Wine of Cardning beeklik has been greatly in. my health has been greatly improved. This wonderful medicine ought to be in every house where there are girls and MRS. C. J. WEST.

Wine Cardui

In almost every home there are girls or women who are not well. The list of "female troubles" is so long that no family is fully exempt. It seems like modern ways of living are wrong somewhere. We dress improperly. We eat highly seasoned food. We keep late hours. We work too hard. Nature will not brook neglect or abuse. The first thing we know our mothers, wives and sisters are attacked in their most sensitive and delicate organism. They have falling of the womb, leucor-rhoea, headaches, backaches, pains all over the body. Their faces show it. Their wasted forms show it. For conquering "female troubles"-for making sick women well-Wine of Cardui is almost infallible. It is needed in every home. With its aid girls pass on to vigorous and beautiful womanhood; wives become mothers with the least possible distress and pain, and LADIES' ADVISORY DEPARTMENT. For advice in cases r late in years go safely through the "turn of life" without danger and with little suffering.

ANOTHER ALUMNIBANQUET

Dancing, Delicacies and Music at Mrs. Fred Bentley's.

Mrs. B. L. Eaton entertained with a very pretty card party at her home, 240 North Emporia avenue, Thursday even-Ing, in honor of Mr. James Garibaldi of Little Rock, Ark. The house was elegantly decorated and presented a scene of floral beauty. Cards were played until a late hour and dainty refreshments were served. Miss Anna Brown and Mr. Little were the winners at cards. Miss Garibaldi and Miss McClees ably assisted Mrs Eaton in receiving and entertaining her guests. Those present were: Misses Reed. Hettinger of Kansas City, Parks, Reece Cox, Elliott, Brown, Schriver, Ross, Geonegan, Lynch, Ackins, Garlbaidi, and McClees; Messra. Goldsmith, Kelso, Dold, McClees, Norris, Garibaldi, Hagny, Prid-6y, Little, Chapman, Imboden, Floyd, Dr. Mansfield, Fuiton, Topping, Delaney and Bougha.

ALUMNI BANQUET. The city has been full of college pleasantries and parties and the various entertainments that make up the closing amusements of the school year, but none was more enjoyed than that of the annual banquet given by the alumni of Lowis academy at the college building on Thursday evening. The two reception rooms of the large building were nicely arranged as parlors, being decorated in yellow and black and yellow and white The banquet table was nicely arranged, forming the letter "L." Professor Scott resided as toastmaster. Besides the tousts, which were of a very high class of good sense and humor combined, were he addresses of Miss McElhaney, the re tiring president, and of the new president, Mr. Lewis. The toasts were as follows: "Education"
"Reminiscences" ......M ...Miss Brown "Our Bachelors" ...........Miss Jackson "The Class of '99" .... Mr. Reed

NORTH AND SOUTH LINE

What an Eastern Railroad Man Says of the Scheme.

Since the project was first made public o build the Dakota, Wichita and Guif road the scheme seems to have been just what everybody was thinking about. Judging from the many encouraging letters and newspaper clippings from people all along the proposed route, all bristling with enthusiasm and expressing the hope and wish that the project will terminate in a reality. Some localities along the line have signified their willingness to aid the project financially. Mr. Cole is in correspondence with influential railroad men in the east, to whom he has outlined the necessity and practicability of the road. Below is what T. W. Jones of Mt. Vernon, Ohio, a railroad man of thirty years experience in floating bonds and in building and equipping roads has to say "Mt. Vernon, O., May 29, 1899.
